Eaton:

a) Church Clock

An up to date quote of £196.00 for the Annual Service of the clock by Smiths of Derby had been obtained and it was unanimously agreed the Council were prepared to pay this yearly charge.

b) Streets and Walkways

After discussion it was agreed that it was unrealistic to expect Highways to attend to all the walkways in the village, and it was agreed to produce a leaflet outlining the situation to be delivered to all house in the village residents.

Cllr Hardy agreed to prepare a draft of the leaflet for further discussion at the next meeting.

17/2169

Eastwell:

No matters raised

17/2170

Goadby Marwood:

The matter of dog fouling was raised but after discussion it was agreed there was no easy solution to this as the perpetrators were never caught in the act.

17/2171

External Audit:

The Annual Return had been passed off by the External Auditor as correct apart from the omission of the new lap top on the Asset Register, this had been rectified and the figure on next year's Return would be adjusted.

17/2172

Neighbourhood Watch:

It was agreed to pursue further the setting up of a Neighbourhood Watch.

17/2173

Herbage Charity:

The matter was deferred indefinitely for further research into the options available.

17/2174

Melton Distributor Road:

After discussion it was agreed that whilst the proposed road would not have any significant physical effect on the Parish, it would be of benefit to the Town and Borough in general.
