19/2322

Eaton:

a) Herbage Charity

A cheque has been received from Marcus Hubbard but no Tenancy Agreement, solicitor advises not to cash cheque at present. It appears Mr Hubbard may have an old style Agricultural Tenancy.

With regard to Terrace Hill Pastures a ten year proposal had been put forward by a prospective tenant which was acceptable to the Parish Council, however a letter had been received from Morgan Bilton on behalf of the Belvoir Estate concerning right of access to the land.

b) Allotment Boundaries:

Cllrs Bettley & Hardy had started discussions with residents whose properties adjoined the allotments, the discussion were ongoing. With regard to the overgrown trees and hedges in the allotments it was agreed to get quotes for this work.

d) Additional taps in allotments:

No final decision on best way forward has been made.

e) Yew Trees in Churchyard:

Cllr Bettley agreed to meet with members of the PCC and Friends of St Denys for further discussion regarding the trees.

19/2323

Eastwell:

Cllr Cawthorn reported that 20 bags of rubbish had been collected during the recent litter pick

19/2324
